35th Mango Tee eyes biggest tourney prizes in Club history

The 35th edition of the Mango Tee, the biggest invitational golf tournament of ACCI, takes a crack at a whopping P36-million worth of prizes, giveaways, and other tournament extravaganza this year.

Set from January 30 to February 4, the event will have four hole-in-one vehicles at stake: Mercedes-Benz GLB 200, Mitsubishi Montero Sport, a Lexus, and a Volvo. A Nissan Kicks and MG ZS Alpha will be raffled off as grand prizes, together with P1.3-million worth of major prizes, and 69 other prizes for five nightly cocktails.

Each of the 744 players will receive giveaways worth almost P18,000 and will have a chance to win in the Cash Bonanza worth P1-million during the grand Awards Night.

Message from the 35th Mango Tee Chairman

I have the rare privilege of working with the illustrious men and women of Alabang Country Club in the 35th Mango Tee committee, with the ACCI president and chairman as advisers.

This tournament will again showcase our beautiful course, exquisite cuisine of the Club restaurants, efficient staff and golf caddies, and most of all the hospitable and friendly Club members.

Your committee promises to deliver a great tournament with multiple hole-in-one prizes, attractive raffle prizes for five nightly cocktails followed by even more pricey and beautiful major raffle items in the awards night which will be hosted by Martin Nievera, Derek Ramsay and Cathy Ong.

Friends, save the date and mark your calendars on January 30 to February 4, 2023.

-Chairman Edgardo "Ed" Lacson
